

ICON Capital Goes Live with LeaseWave® from Odessa Technologies, Inc.

April 30, 2010

Odessa Technologies, Inc. is a software ICON Capital Corp. ("ICON"), a member of the Monitor 100™ group of top leasing companies, has gone live with LeaseWave, the lease management suite provided by Odessa Technologies, Inc ("Odessa").

"LeaseWave has enabled us to more efficiently manage our lease accounting systems and streamline our lease operations function," says Craig Jackson, Senior Vice President, ICON. "With more controls and less data entry, we feel we have the most efficient lease management software available."

"ICON required a system that would immediately create efficiency gains in business process, establish controls and be flexible enough to support the complex financing options they offer to their customers. LeaseWave exceeded those requirements." says Jeff Lezinski, Vice President, Equipment Leasing, Odessa. "With another successful large client in production, this once again demonstrates LeaseWave's superior functionality and technology when it comes to leasing platforms. We're excited for ICON and look forward to long-lasting and prosperous relationship with them."
